

Decision Making: The Foundation of Reasonable Force

Enhance Decision Making Under Stress

Few topics in law enforcement cause more public scrutiny than police use of force. Designed primarily for line officers and first line supervisors, this course provides tools to make reasonable use of force decisions, while increasing officer safety. Through guided discussion, video analysis, and case studies, participants will explore:

Current Use of Force Trends

Human Performance Factors Affecting Decision Making

Countering The "Culture of Speed"

Enhanced Situational Awareness (Behavioral Threat Analysis)

Training Tips for Enhanced Officer Safety

Preparing for the Aftermath of Use of Force

C.Y.A. (Can You Articulate?) Report Writing

"The experience was great and the content was up to date. The information provided will greatly help me in my career. The instructor was very enthusiastic and it made the course better."

~Sgt., Ingham County Sheriff's Office

"The instructor is an obvious experienced instructor who engages his target audience. Time blocks were perfectly balanced with short breaks. Interesting interactive videos making interesting interactive feedback."

~Deputy, Muskegon County Sheriff's Office

COMMAND PRESENCE
TRANSFORMING GOOD OFFICERS INTO GREAT ONES